

I DO BUSINESS. Partners with DMG Team to host the upcoming I DO BUSINESS. Atlantic Regional Summit - scheduled for December 3-4-5, 2013 at the Best Western Plus Glengarry Conference Centre in Truro, Nova Scotia.

We are very excited to announce that I DO BUSINESS. has recently partnered with Diversity Management Group to present the Atlantic Regional Summit. The objective is to bring together Aboriginal firms, First Nation communities and their decision makers (Chiefs & Councils, CEO's, CFO's), Aboriginal organizations, industry and government partners as well as the private sector companies and municipalities to strategize and develop new ways to increase contract and procurement opportunities for Aboriginal firms.

We will have a full line of expert speakers on issues facing Aboriginal business such as challenges with economic leakage in communities and organizations, the RFP process as it pertains to bidding on contracts, the benefits of implementing an effective First Nation/Aboriginal Procurement Strategy, how we can increase Aboriginal benefits and support long term business growth through the development of effective procurement strategies and how multiple stakeholders can increase benefits back to First Nation communities & more!
